3) Samuel Albert Troth

Born 28-2-1863    Died 28-1-1947
age 83

Birth date is from a tree drawn up by a solicitor at the time of George Jones' death (1986) to decide who was to benefit from his estate.

Baptised at St.Johns Church on 25-12-1863, address was Sidemoor and Samuel was a Nailer. In 1871 he is living at 188 Sidemoor aged 8 and a Scholar.

In 1881 Samuel was a Lodger and nailer aged 18 and single, living with Hannah Kinder at Crabtree Lane, Sidemoor.

From the above mentioned solicitor's evidence and from family knowledge, Samuel lived with Eliza Jones and had children prior to their marriage.

Circa 1884 son, George Jones was born.

On 2-1-1886 son, Ernest Jones was born.

On 4-1-1889 sons, Ernest and Arthur were baptised at St.Johns Church, the illegitimate sons of Eliza Jones, nailer of Sidemoor.

NOTE: There is no mention of a Arthur Jones in the solicitor's data

Circa 1890 son, Frank Jones was born.

In 1891 Samuel is living at 131 Sidemoor aged 28 and a Nailer.

In 1891 Eliza was living with her widowed mother, Sarah, at 23 The Pleck. Eliza's siblings, Elizabeth, and James are also there, as is George, 6, Scholar; Ernest, 3; an Arthur, 3; Frank, 1 and a Sarah aged 4 months.

Ernest's aged should I think read '5'. Arthur and Sarah could be the illegitimate children of Eliza's sister, Elizabeth as they don't get mentioned in the solicitor's data.

On 15-5-1892 daughter, Minnie Jones was born.

Samuel Troth married Eliza Jones on 28-12-1897 at All Saints Church. He was 34 a Nailer from Duke of York Lane, father Samuel Troth a Nailer. She was 32 from Duke of York Lane, father George Jones (decd) a Nailer. Sam signed Eliza made her mark. Witnesses were Frederick Troth and Elizabeth Dyers. (Elizabeth Dyers being Eliza's sister)

On 16-4-1899 son, Frederick was born.

Circa February 1901 son, William was born.

In 1901 he is living at 78 [4] Willow Gardens aged 38 and a Nailer. With him are his wife, Eliza, 38, Nailer; children; George Jones, 16, Railway Machinist; Ernest Jones, 13, Nailer; Frank Jones, 11; Minnie Jones, 9; Frederick Troth, 2 and William Troth, 2 months.

Circa 1902 daughter, Lily was born.

Circa 1904 son, Bertie was born.

Circa 1908 son, Albert was born.

Eliza died on 8-2-1922 aged 59 as the result of being severely burnt when she dropped an oil lamp and her clothes caught fire.

FROM THE MESSENGER OF 11-2-1922 page 10 col. 1 LAMP FATALITY AT SIDEMOOR
SAD DEATH OF A SIDEMOOR WOMAN – "IN FLAMES FROM HEAD TO TOE"

At Bromsgrove Police Court on Tuesday evening the Coroner held an enquiry respecting the death of Eliza Troth, aged 59, wife of Samuel Troth, nailmaker, of 4 Willow Gardens, Sidemoor. Which occurred in the Cottage Hospital on Monday evening from burns received the previous day.

Samuel Troth stated that he last saw his wife alive previous to the accident on Sunday evening about 7o'clock when she was in her usual health which was good. He had since identified the body at the hospital.

Alice Wheeler, aged 10, granddaughter of deceased, said she was in the house with her grandmother when the accident happened, about 9.15 on Sunday evening. Deceased took a lighted lamp to go into the pantry to fetch some coal. She then heard her cry out and saw her coming out of the pantry with her clothes all on fire. She went to fetch Mrs Tidmarsh who lives next door, and deceased followed her.

Annie Tidmarsh stated she and her husband were seated by their fireside on Sunday evening when Alice Wheeler came running into the kitchen saying her granny was on fire. They both rushed out and met deceased who was in flames from head to toe. She fell on the garden and they got some jackets and put over her, putting the flames out as best they could. They then carried her into her own house, got her clothes off, and wrapped her in a blanket, putting some oil on her hands which were burnt very badly. Witness sent for the doctor and Police Constable Phillips. The motor ambulance arrived, and deceased was taken to hospital.

Dr. Coaker deposed that he first saw deceased in hospital about 10.0 p.m. on Sunday. She was severely burnt on the face, both arms, both legs and the front of stomach and was suffering severely from shock and in great pain. She never rallied and the case was hopeless from the first. She died about 10.0 p.m. on Monday, death being due to shock following severe burns. The Coroner, in returning a verdict of 'Accidental Death' complimented Mrs Tidmarsh and her husband on the prompt way they had acted.

Eliza was buried in Bromsgrove cemetery, plot #F494, on 11-2-1922, 'the wife of Samuel Troth from Willow Gardens aged 59'

Samuel Albert died on 28-1-1947 aged 83.

No mention of Emma in Cemetery records.

Info from Gordon Troth; Samuel and Eliza lived together before getting married and had children by the name of Jones. One of dad's brothers died of consumption in Romsley hospital circa 1938. May have been Bertie or Albert. Another brother nicknamed 'Dink' Troth married Emma? And had children; Sam and Doreen. Sam lives in Finstall Road opposite Ruby club. Doreen lives at bottom of Broad Street where the shops used to be. Dink owned the shops and had the houses built. Another of Dad's brothers lived at Rubery by the Plough and died sometime around the By-pass being put in.

Info from Samuel Troth; Dad was known as 'Dink'. There were Jones siblings. It was 'Peek' Troth who lived at Rubery. It was Bertie who died of consumption.

Info from Pamela Troth and Joan Breen would suggest that 'Peek' Troth's name was Peter. No Peter Troth appears on the tree drawn up by the solicitor – so was Peek Troth really Peter, the son of Frederick and Selina and therefore a cousin and not a brother to Frederick (Ted). Suggested death year for 'Peek' was 1955.

[No 'Peter Troth' appears in Bromsgrove cemetery records]
